BREAKWATER BUCKS THE BAR

Tug F. R. Jones to be Raised and Re-paired at Cost of Asuncion's Owners—Costa Rica's Bad Luck—Elder Sails South—Waterfront Notes.

The steamer Aurelia is among the bar-bound fleet in the lower harbor, waiting for the "way out" to be made a little easier for a craft of her size.

The raising of the tug F. R. Jones, sunk off Mount Coffin a few nights ago, by the steamer Asuncion, will be paid for the owners of the latter vessel, and it will cost in the neighborhood of $5000. The work will be commenced at once, and she will be repaired at the drydocks at St. John's.

The steamship Breakwater came down from the metropolis at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, and went over the bar at 10 o'clock, through a perfect smother of immense seas. Vessels are taking a long chance when they tackle that turbulent barrier these stormy days.

The steamship Costa Rica which came in from San Francisco on Thursday noon last, was boarded by an immense sea on the Columbia bar, and though the damage to the ship was slight, rating perhaps at a few hundred dollars, two men paid the penalty of the venture in pretty severe injuries. A Brekke, one of the crew was thrown against the housing and received internal injuries that caused his excruciating pain, but which had subsided very materially yesterday when inquiry was made as to his condition, at St. Mary's hospital in this city; and Fred Peck, a steamer passenger, who insisted in staying on deck after he had been repeatedly bidden to keep below, along with all the other passengers, as is the universal custom of ship's officers in crossing the bar, was flung backward down a companionway and suffered a compound fracture of his right leg, just above the ankle. He too was mending as well as might be yesterday, at the hospital, but it will be some time before he can resume his journey to Portland. He hails from the Bay City and was up this way on a quest for work. The Costa Rica will return down, on her way to San Francisco, early on Monday morning next.

The Asuncion, oil tank steamer, crossed out for the Bay City at 11 o'clock yesterday forenoon.

The steamship George W. Elder was among the getaways yesterday for San Francisco. She was well fixed with passengers and freight and took three people from the Callender pier here, two second class and one first class passenger.

The staunch sloop Condor, which has lain at the Wilson yards on Smith's Point for several years, and practically ever since she was built there, has been purchased by the Fisher Brothers Company, and is being equipped with a splendid 65 horse-power Union gasoline engine, and when ready for sea, will be sent to Yaquina Bay, to operate in that section as a freighter; and will doubtless prove a successful investment. She is now at the Wilson yards near the Can dock.

The steamship City of Panama came down from Portland on the afternoon of Thanksgiving Day, and is lying in the city channel waiting for a decent bar to go out on. She had an experience coming in that makes her officers just a shade dubious about the condition of the sea when she goes out.

The British steamship Borderer, grain laden for Port Elizabeth, Cape Colony, South Africa, came down from Portland on Thanksgiving Day and is at anchor in the lower harbor biding her time for an easy getaway.

The steamship Roanoke will leave San Francisco at noon tomorrow for Eureka, Astoria and Portland, being practically 24 hours behind her schedule, and due in here on Tuesday next.

The O. R. & N. steamer Harvest Queen went up the river yesterday morning at 7 o'clock with the ship Acme and the schooner James Rolfe on her hawsers; the former for Portland, and the latter for Westport.

When the weather settles again there will be some tall hustling in both directions over the bar of the Columbia River; there being a fair-sized fleet on this side waiting to get to sea, and a goodly number of ships due off the bar as soon as it shall be at all inviting.

The Lurline is still making good schedules in and out of Astoria. She went up last evening on time and carried well above and below stairs.

TELLS ASTORIANS HOW TO FIND

IF THE KIDNEYS ARE INACTIVE—ALSO GIVES SIMPLE PRESCRIPTION WHICH ANYONE CAN PREPARE AT HOME.

There are more cases of kidney trouble here now than ever before, while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to some form of kidney disease than any other cause.

When there is sickness, examine the urine. Rheumatism is only a symptom of kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the sluggish, inactive kidneys have failed to sift out, leaving it to decompose and settle about the joints and muscles, causing intense suffering; frequently resulting in deformity; often reaching the heart when death ensues.

Pains across the back, frequent, painful and suppressed urination and other symptoms of weak bladder are not the only signs of kidney trouble; many cases of stomach disease, headache, pain in the heart, inactive liver, etc., are but symptoms; the cause of which can be traced to feeble, clogged kidneys.

A simple test of the urine is to void a small quantity in a bottle or glass and let it stand over night; next morning, if there is a red-dish brick-dust sediment, or white, fleecy substance present either consult some reputable physician or take a good vegetable treatment. The following prescription is recommended highly in these cases, and the sufferer should mix it at home: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

Where any of the symptoms enumerated above are present, good results are sure to follow immediately the use of this simple prescription.

Lane's Family Medicine will give you a digestion that will permit you to eat good things instead of "health foods" of various sorts that are as palatable as hay.

HON. S. B. HERMAN IS WELL AGAIN

Noted Oregon Statesman Restored to Health on Recent Eastern Trip.

Hon. Shiller B. Herman, distinguished statesman and legislator of Portland, Oregon, who was recently on an eastern trip, is among those strongly in favor of L. T. Cooper, in the discussion over Cooper and his medicines, which has raged for the past year in cities visited by the young man on his educative campaigns, as he calls them.

Cooper was explaining his new theories and medicines to Boston people visit to that city, and in a recent interview Mr. Herman said: "My trip east accomplished more for me than I ever believed possible. It has actually been the means of restoring my health. While in Boston I heard a great deal about this man Cooper and his medicines, and one morning I talked with a Boston banker who told me that he had been relieved by Cooper's medicines after 10 years' chronic dyspepsia. For the past 20 years I have been a fearful sufferer with nervous dyspepsia. It has been so bad that it all but forced me to resign from the legislature."

"I was feeling wretchedly that morning, and I made up my mind to try the medicine. I had seen leading physicians without number both East and West. They had been unable to help me in the least, and I am no more believed this Cooper medicine could help me than it could bring a dead man back to life. I really don't know why I bought it. It was like a throwing man clutching at a straw."

"To make a long story short, it has been astonishingly successful in my case. Today I am enjoying a sound stomach and perfect health for the first time in 20 years. I can eat heartily without the slightest inconvenience afterward. I have a fine appetite, and sleep well. I am no longer moody and depressed, and my nervousness has entirely disappeared."

"Any man who has chronic dyspepsia owes it to his family to try this medicine." In all our experience as druggists, we have never seen anything to surpass the famous Cooper preparations. —Charles Rogers & Son.
